Verification in all its aspects, including the role of the United Nations in the field of verification

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 59/60 of 3 December 2004, in which it requested the Secretary-General, with the assistance of a panel of government experts, to explore the question of verification in all its aspects, including the role of the United Nations in the field of verification,

Noting two previous reports of the Secretary-General on the subject submitted in 1990 and 1995,[1]

Recalling its request to the Secretary-General, its resolution 59/60 of 3 December 2004, to transmit to it the report of the Panel of Government Experts on verification in all its aspects, including the role of the United Nations in the field of verification and the intent of the Panel to produce a report that is forward-looking and discerning of new trends and requirements,

1. Takes note of the report of the Panel of Government Experts on verification in all its aspects, including the role of the United Nations in the field of verification,[2] transmitted by the Secretary-General on 15 August 2007, acknowledges that the report was unanimously approved by the Panel of Government Experts and commends the report to the attention of Member States;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to give the report the widest possible circulation;

3. Encourages Member States to consider the report and invites Member States to offer additional views to the Secretary-General on the report;

[1] A/45/372 and Corr.1 and A/50/377 and Corr.1.
[2] A/61/1028.

07-55198 (E) 221007

4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-third session a compilation of views received from Member States, relevant United Nations organs and international treaty organizations with respect to the report;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-fourth session the item entitled "Verification in all its aspects, including the role of the United Nations in the field of verification".
